FOR RELEASE: MAY 18, 2016

NEW JERSEY DISAPPROVES OF GOV. CHRISTIE 2-1, LOWEST EVER, QUINNIPIAC UNIVERSITY POLL FINDS;
HE SHOULD NOT BE TRUMP'S RUNNING MATE, VOTERS SAY 4-1

New Jersey voters disapprove 64 – 29 percent of the job Gov. Christopher Christie is doing, his lowest approval rating ever and the worst approval rating in six years for any governor in the nine states surveyed by Quinnipiac University, according to a poll released today.

Gov. Christie's lowest approval score before today was a 56 – 38 percent disapproval in an April 20, 2015, survey by the independent Quinnipiac (KWIN-uh-pe-ack) University.

Today, Republicans approve by a lackluster 59 – 34 percent, while disapproval is 86 – 9 percent among Democrats and 66 – 26 percent among independent voters. In fact, Republicans are the only party, gender, age or racial group listed to give Christie a positive score.

New Jersey voters say 72 – 18 percent that likely Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump should not pick Christie as his running mate. Even Republicans say no 64 – 27 percent.

“Gov. Christopher Christie is in Trenton until the end of 2017, if he wants to be, holding what is constitutionally one of the strongest governor's seats in the nation. But New Jersey voters give Christie abysmal job-approval numbers. Even a third of his fellow Republicans disapprove,” said Quinnipiac University Poll Assistant Director Maurice Carroll.

“Christie-for-President was a flop and, as far as the local folks are concerned, so is Christie-for-Vice President. Forget local pride, New Jersey voters say overwhelmingly; they don't want their Gov on a Trump ticket.”

Quinnipiac University Poll/May 18, 2016 – page 2

“It’s a drastic decline in popularity for a governor who once looked like a strong choice for president,” Carroll added.

New Jersey voters approve 49 – 25 percent of the job Sen. Cory Booker is doing, but disapprove 40 – 34 percent of the job Sen. Robert Menendez is doing.

President Barack Obama gets a 53 – 44 percent job approval rating.

Gas and Death Taxes

New Jersey voters oppose 54 – 42 percent increasing the state’s gas tax to pay for road and mass transit improvements.

Voters are divided on reducing the so-called death tax, the tax paid on an inheritance when someone dies: 49 percent support a reduction, with 45 percent opposed.

And voters oppose 52 – 36 percent reducing the inheritance tax if this cut were linked to an increase in the gas tax.

“Lawmakers in Trenton are looking at a Transportation Trust Fund that is running on empty, but Garden State voters just don’t want to increase the gas tax, even if a gas tax hike were linked to a death tax reduction,” Carroll said.

“Voters are thinking, ‘I know I’m driving today. Who knows what I’ll inherit down the road?’”

From May 10 – 16, Quinnipiac University surveyed 1,989 New Jersey voters, with a margin of error of +/- 2.2 percentage points. Live interviewers call land lines and cell phones.

The Quinnipiac University Poll, directed by Douglas Schwartz, Ph.D., conducts public opinion surveys in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Florida, Ohio, Virginia, Iowa, Colorado and the nation as a public service and for research.
