

Exhibit 11: Dispositions of Subjects Receiving Nonjudicial Punishment, FY11.

Notes:

1. The Military Services reported that 187 subjects of sexual assault investigations disposed in FY11 were considered for nonjudicial punishment.
2. Of the 168 subjects who were considered for nonjudicial punishment, 6 subjects were still pending action at the end of FY11. Nonjudicial punishment outcome data was not available for 13 subjects.
3. Of the 168 subjects whose nonjudicial punishments were completed in FY11, 156 subjects (93%) were found guilty by the commander and issued punishment. The remaining 12 subjects (7%) were found not guilty.
4. Nonjudicial punishment may result in a combination of penalties. Consequently, Service members found guilty can be administered one or more kinds of punishments. However, for most of the cases, convicted Service members received at least three kinds of punishment: a reduction in rank, a fine/forfeiture, and a restriction on their liberty for a period of time. Almost half of the subjects awarded nonjudicial punishment were given hard labor or extra duty.
5. For 6% of subjects, the nonjudicial punishment contributed to the rationale supporting an administrative discharge.
