Kimball Political Consulting poll: Scott Brown 49, Elizabeth Warren 47

November 2, 2012 (Boston, MA) - Senator Scott Brown holds a 2 point advantage of Elizabeth Warren, according to a new Kimball Political Consulting poll. The survey stands in contrast to this week's Suffolk University poll showing Warren holding a 7 point lead but mirrors the results of a Boston Globe poll from last weekend.

Brown captures 49% of the vote with Warren at 47% of "likely" voters. Kimball has done a series of tracking polls on this race since August with Warren taking her first lead (48% to 46%) in mid-October.

The Pollster, Spencer Kimball, believes the sleeper effect, which is when voters forget the messenger and remember the message is what has turned things around for Brown. The theory suggests that Brown's blistering attacks on Warren's heritage and her legal representation took time to have the intended effect but voters may now be showing doubt about the Democrat nominee. Warren's unfavorable opinion has risen to 45%.

In a state where Democrats outnumber Republicans nearly 4 to 1 it appears Brown's strategy to use high profile Democrat endorsements has worked, with Brown taking 21% of the Democrat vote. Brown is also able to capture 61% of the Independent vote to Warren's 34%.

Warren's communication goals throughout the campaign were to make women issues including Abortion and Equal pay prominent pieces of her campaign along with the cost of education. These issues did not seem to resonate, as less than 11% of voters listed any of these three as their top issue.

President Obama holds a 13 point lead (54% to 41%) and Medical Marijuana is supported by 54% of voters with 37% opposing the new law.

The statewide survey of 761 Massachusetts likely voters was conducted on October 31 and November 1, using automated telephone interview. The margin of error is +/- 3.48 percent at a 95 percent level of confidence. Frequencies and full cross-tabulation data are below

Methodology (Caller ID)

All respondents interviewed in this study were part of a fully representative sample of registered voters in the state using a probability sampling of N=761 registered "likely" voters. The Margin of Error for the sample is +/- 3.48% with a confidence level of 95%.

The survey was administered using an Automated Telephone Interviewing (ATI) system. The ATI system allows data to be entered directly into a computerized database through the numbers on interviewee's phone, providing a highly reliable system of data collection.

A random sample of registered voters statewide was purchased from Aristotle Voter Lists, a leading supplier of voter lists to the survey research industry.

A screening question was asked to all participants regarding how likely there were to vote in the November 6, 2012 General Election. Only those who answered "very likely" were included into the sample. The survey was conducted by Kimball Political Consulting between October 18, 19, 20, and 21. There was a response rate of 21% for this survey.

Data Analysis

The results presented in this report include univariate and bivariate analysis of the data. Frequency distributions for each item included on the questionnaire are shown in the tables. In all cases, cross-tabulation results are also shown. This type of bivariate analysis examines differences between sub-groups of the overall population.

The purpose of these statistical tests is to determine whether or not the observed difference between sub-groups in the sample is due to sampling error or whether it is due to a real difference in the population. When the results are statistically significant, it strongly suggests that the observed difference between sub-groups found in the sample is due to a real difference in the population, and not due to sampling error.

Survey data was not weighted based on political, gender and geographical demographics of the district because the sample itself properly reflected the parameters of Massachusetts in the following demographics.
